DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 – 5 are allowed with Claim 1 being independent.

Claims 6 – 9 are allowed with Claim 6 being independent.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In regards to Claims 1 and 6, the prior art alone and in combination does not teach of the socket and post members being generally straight sided cylinders throughout their lengths and interengaging one another and forming a snap fit closed configuration wherein said post and socket members adapted to form air tight seals when interengage.

As discussed by Applicant, the prior art of Julius is not teaching of the straight portions forming a snap fit structure. The art of Julius shows that a snap fit or friction fit or combination thereof can be done (Column 4, Lines 21 - 37), however, the only section showing a snap fit is possible is the items 26 and 27 (Column 5, Lines 8 – 10) which is clearly teaching against a straight geometry snap fit structure. Furthermore, the lack of space between mating surfaces 9 and 10 do not make it possible for a snap fit and therefore Julius does not appropriately read on the claims.

Furthermore although the combination of Julius was used just to show mating surfaces, it is non-analogous art. One would not take the mating of structures from containers to be considered with elements which are passed through sheets. It is also stated that this would yield predictable results, but as discussed before, the geometry presented with the container to be used in a binding mechanism is not predictable due to the fact that one would not look to containers for fastening for an element that binds sheets.

Previously cited cylinders mating with one another to form a binding did not appropriately teach of snap fit and air tight seals.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
